

JAMES TORMÉ

CELEBRATES THE GREATS

Award-winning jazz singer James Tormé celebrates music's greatest legends, from Ella Fitzgerald, Ray Charles, Peggy Lee and Nat "King" Cole, to Miles Davis, Frank Sinatra, and of course, his own father, 3-time Grammy Award winner Mel Tormé. This one is not to be missed!

Example program:

On the Street Where You Live
Margie
Drown In My Own Tears
Green Dolphin Street
Fine Romance
'Ella Be Good'
Too Close For Comfort
Sunny Gets Blue
That Old Black Magic
Come Back to Me
The Way You Look Tonight
Walk Between The Raindrops:
Strike Up The Band
What Dat Dere?
Superstition
Blues In The Night
It Don't Mean A Thing (If It Ain't Got That Swing)

"James Tormé is definitely his father's son - smooth and cool." New York Post

"If you get a chance to see James Tormé you should beg, borrow, even steal a ticket."
JazzFM.com

"The combination of world class musicianship and Tormé's incomparable vocal gifts and showmanship made for a rare musical experience." Examiner.com

"An extraordinary singer with immense resources... his phrasing was audacious and brilliant." Andrew Cartmel, London Jazz News

"There's really nothing in town that quite matches up to what Tormé is doing right now."
Proxart Magazine

"He was the picture of cool urbane sophistication but also conveyed an easy-going affability, charm and a likeability that was endearing." Examiner.com

"Just like his dad - same quality of voice and everything. Fantastic!"
Sir Terry Wogan, BBC Radio 2

"Tormé is a sparkplug of sensational vocal artistry and showmanship."
Frank Griffiths, London Jazz News

"Great arrangements, beautifully sung." Michael Parkinson, BBC Radio 2

ALKAHEST ARTISTS & ATTRactions

