

“MISS GWEN & THE RETRO KATS”

A musical mashup of two great artists into one amazing band.

Atlanta icons Gwen Hughes and Ruby Red's join forces to create “Miss Gwen & The Retro Kats.” The Retro Kats are the bee's knees of swing bands bringing back ragtime fun coupled with fresh takes on more contemporary music. This is a band that knows its onions when it comes to keeping the party hotsy-totsy. When you want to wear a boa and get a little zozzled – this band is the cat's (or maybe the KAT'S?!) pajamas.

The 'Kats exhume the excellence of the past hits like "Cakewalkin Babies From Home" and "Sentimental Gentleman from Georgia" then move into crowd favorites like "I'll Fly Away" & "Butter Beans." The band delights in putting contemporary music in this retro setting - songs from ZZ Top, Macklemore & Lewis, Elle King (among others) make their way into the set list, too. It's a night of swing, blues, gospel and songs from every era in a joyful Americana setting.

“She swings lightly from come-hither cabaret diva to serious pop interpreter to playful entertainer, indulging in liberating vocalese.” (Atlanta Journal Constitution)

“Gwen! Thank you for being such a great talent and a joy to work with!” (Furkids.org)

“Gwen does it again! (Jazz Time)

The Retro Kats love Arts in Education and Have Great Options for Your Community and Students and offers a band from 4 pc to 7 pc lineup!
