

Drew Harrison – In the Spirit of Lennon

Singer-songwriter Drew Harrison is one of those rare recording artists with the ability to translate life into song. His passionate, honest, and intense style resonates in the vein of Bono, Ritchie Havens and John Lennon.

In the Spirit of Lennon* is Drew's tribute to John Lennon, and interpretation of his music. He goes beyond just sounding like him, but captures the intensity that Lennon brought to the Beatles music as well as his own.

He leads a very successful band, The Sun Kings, in the San Francisco Bay Area and currently performs over 100 shows a year both solo and with his band. Drew's solo performances and his 'In the Spirit of Lennon' shows have yielded much praise.

As a solo artist he has performed in Europe, South America, and in the States he's been invited to open for such artists as Richard Thompson, Lyle Lovett, and Steve Miller to name a few. Drew's abilities as a multi talented performer have earned him fans throughout the world and his critically acclaimed solo release, Go it Alone, has enjoyed robust success.

In October 2010 Drew debuted The Plastic Fauxno Band who presented 'Love Is the Answer – The Concert for John Lennon'. The two and a half hour Concert for John Lennon was presented in San Francisco on Lennon's 70th birthday, October 9th, at Beatles Fest West as the concert John might have performed had he toured in 1982. It featured songs from his entire solo career, respectfully performed by The Plastic Fauxno Band.

Somewhere among all of this Drew has found time for stage, TV, film, and completing a degree at UC Berkeley, adhering to a simple philosophy of living life fully, and giving back when one can.
