

JASON COLEMAN and MEAGAN TAYLOR CONCERT REVIEWS FROM PRESENTERS

"From the first 'slip note' to the final chord, the Nashville Legacy concert was a rousing success! So many favorite songs, and the personal reflections of Floyd Cramer and Chet Atkins added so much. Loved the duets performed with these legends. A perfect concert choice for our 65th Anniversary celebration. Jason and Meagan came as performers and left as friends. Our audience comments were as resounding as their applause, including, 'Have them back soon... like, next week!'

Jason Coleman was so easy to work with in preparation for our concert. The arrangements needed were clearly listed in advance to make it a smooth event on both sides of the curtain. An experienced performer, he has this process down pat! His appreciation and adaptability for the local setup made it easy."

*Mary H. – Irving, TX
Entertainment Series of Irving*

"The Music City Christmas concert was just as well received, if not better, than [when they performed here] last year. Jason and Meagan have endeared themselves to this community, not only with remarkable talent but their gracious spirit as well. They are so accommodating and willing to work with us concerning the logistics of the program. Everything about the evening was wonderful."

*Ken G. – Scottsville, KY
Scottsville-Allen County Arts Council*

"They were wonderful, the show was amazing, and they could not have been more gracious. It was like listening to Cramer and Atkins, with a facelift of today's generation! Loved them."

*Jackie C. – Suffolk, VA
Suffolk Center for Cultural Arts*

"Jason Coleman and Meagan Taylor are amazing artists. Their show is tightly and entertainingly produced. The visual projections, which accompanied their narratives about the Nashville Sound, were interestingly crafted [and] touched the heartstrings of our patrons. The segues from the video projections to the live performances were very smooth and spotless. Their musical stylings were true to Floyd and Chet arrangements.

Jason and Meagan were masterful at interpreting, explaining and performing the wonderful music of Floyd Cramer and Chet Atkins. They performed with tremendous love and pride for their family. Our patrons are requesting a return performance in the coming years. With no reservations, we positively recommend the Nashville Legacy show."

*Jerry B. – Mount Carmel, IL
Brubeck Arts Center, Wabash Valley College*

JASON COLEMAN and MEAGAN TAYLOR CONCERT REVIEWS FROM PRESENTERS

"A Music City Christmas recently delighted our audience at the Quick Center for the Arts at St. Bonaventure University. The exchanges between Meagan Taylor and Jason Coleman during the show were absolutely perfect and their tributes to Country Music legends Chet Atkins and Floyd Cramer were the highlights along with the beautiful renditions of holiday songs. This concert brought a sparkle of the Music City to our western New York audience and it was rewarded with two standing ovations. The musicians very graciously greeted the audience after the show and signed autographs for a long time."

*Ludwig B. – St. Bonaventure, NY
Quick Center for the Arts,
St. Bonaventure University*

"Jason and his group are the only act to return to our stage seven times. They have been the most popular presentation of all. The audience will immediately remember and reminisce about the golden years of good music. Everyone who attends a concert featuring these fine young talented musicians will leave thoroughly entertained."

*Bill G. – Valley, AL
Historic Langdale Theater*

"The buzz is that [Jason and Meagan] were wonderful. . . . While we have given standing ovations, we do not usually do two – one during a performance and then at the end! I had more members ask me, 'Where did you find them?'"

*Jamie P. – Cincinnati, OH
Cincinnati Woman's Club*

"What a concert, what a night for us, and what raves we are getting from an audience of 450 people. The entire experience from arrival of the artists until we said goodbye was one to be remembered as absolutely delightful. Indeed, the Nashville Legacy is alive and well through this generation of artists who were absolutely amazing. The musicianship, the relationship with the audience, and everything about this performance was breathtaking. Floyd Cramer and Chet Atkins can be so proud of these two sharing the amazing story that will live forever. We can't wait to bring them back to our stage!"

*Charlotte M. – Albemarle, NC
Stanly County Concert Association*

JASON COLEMAN and MEAGAN TAYLOR CONCERT REVIEWS FROM PRESENTERS

“Having Jason Coleman and Meagan Taylor in concert with our orchestra was a real crowd-pleaser. I’ve heard so many comments from our patrons about how this is the music they grew up with and how much fun they had at the performance. All this combined with the holiday spirit – it’s no wonder we sold out!”

*Raylene C. – LaGrange, GA
LaGrange Symphony Orchestra*

“Holiday spirit was plentiful as friends and families gathered for this colorful LaGrange Symphony Orchestra concert with guest artists Jason Coleman and Meagan Taylor. With Jason in his brilliant red jacket and Meagan in her red shoes, the concert began with bright and lively instrumental medleys, beautifully enriched with the LSO. They did many holiday favorites interspersed with several more recent seasonal ballads. Meagan nailed several tender songs that were perfect for this season of reflection, and Jason has mastered his grandfather’s slip-note style of playing. Beyond that, he played some pieces that were his own arrangements for full orchestra and piano that were terrific. Fittingly, they played ‘Last Date’ written by Floyd Cramer to sign off. What a great night. This concert reminded everyone to honor the past and enjoy the present.”

*“Symphonic Notes”
LaGrange Symphony Orchestra, LaGrange, GA*

“McKinney Community Concerts had a packed house for our Christmas concert. Jason Coleman and Meagan Taylor showed up with an evening’s worth of refreshing Christmas music and family stories. The audience responded enthusiastically, especially when Jason showed the old stage video of when he was nine years old, playing double piano with his grandfather. There was hardly a dry eye in the auditorium as the guests saw the pride in Floyd’s face, knowing he did not live much longer after that performance. The admiration was mutual.

McKinney Concerts has been in the concert ‘business’ since 1974, bringing first-class professional shows to our stage with such caring, talented musicians as Jason and Meagan. Although they had performed for us nine years ago, it is mutually hoped that it won’t be another nine years before this duo can come back and inspire the audience again.”

*Dyna M. – McKinney, TX
McKinney Community Concerts*

JASON COLEMAN and MEAGAN TAYLOR CONCERT REVIEWS FROM PRESENTERS

“Together [Jason and Meagan] brought Chet’s and Floyd’s music into the present, and carried us into the future via their blend of exceptional instrumental and vocal blending. I have had the privilege to hear some astounding musicians in my life, and these two are right up there with the best. They were humble, personable, and complemented each other’s abilities. The concert was a journey through the musical lives of Chet and Floyd, and the way their musical abilities impacted several decades of Nashville music and musicians. . . . The music of Chet and Floyd lives on through [Jason and Meagan], while they add to that legacy through their own performances.”

*Gloucester-Mathews Gazette-Journal
Concerts By The Bay, Mathews, VA*

“[Jason and Meagan’s] individual and combined talents are noteworthy. They candidly and comfortably connected with the audience with personal stories about Floyd Cramer and Chet Atkins and interjected slides and videos to embellish their performance. The audience, with hearty applause, demonstrated their approval.”

*Marsha W. – Modesto, CA
Modesto Community Concert Association*

“What a rich heritage [Jason and Meagan] have been blessed with. . . . Meagan Taylor’s guitar sound is uncanny – I could hear Chet Atkins – [and the] harmonies were killer! And I honestly don’t think [Jason] can improve on the ending playing with Floyd – absolutely seamless.”

*Judy M. – Mountain City, TN
Heritage Hall Theatre*

“It was our pleasure to host the fine entertainment [Jason and Meagan] brought to Alexander City. Our audience was very receptive and our Arts Council was extremely pleased with the evening. . . . [They] will definitely be invited back!”

*Mary P. – Alexander City, AL
Alexander City Arts*