

He's One of A Kind

There are successful DJ's like Ryan Seacrest, Casey Kasem, and Rick Dees. There are artist managers who take unknown personalities and make them big stars. There are concert promoters like Live Nation and AEG. There are TV producers who are known within the industry and there are TV personalities like Tom Bergeron, Bob Barker, and Pat Sajak. There are people who have won multiple Emmy's, and there are people that have a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. But only one person, in the entire entertainment industry, has done it all - Bob Eubanks.

He was one of the top Rock and Roll DJ's in Los Angeles at the number one radio station for seven years.

In 1972, Eubanks entered the world of country music. He became the exclusive promoter for country star Merle Haggard for ten years. During that time he also managed and crafted the careers of Dolly Parton, Barbara Mandrell, and Marty Robbins.

Eubanks is one of only three individuals to promote the Beatles Concerts, all three years they toured in America. He also produced some of the biggest concerts ever which included The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, and Bob Dylan just to name a few. He was one of the top TV producers, having produced network and syndicated game shows and variety TV. He hosted some of television's most successful daytime programs, such as The Newlywed Game and Card Sharks. He is the only game show personality to host the same format with original programming for five decades. TV Guide named him one of the top five Game Show Hosts of all time. He's won 8 Emmy's, including a lifetime achievement award and became the last person to receive a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame in the twentieth century. Yes, he is one of a kind!

Currently Bob Eubanks, host of the Newlywed Game, is a highly demanded Keynote Speaker to corporate America. Speaking to such companies as Southwest Airlines, John Hancock Insurance, & Wells Fargo Bank just to name a few. Eubanks shares his unique business philosophy to corporate America, which has made him one of the most successful entrepreneurs in the entertainment industry.

Each year Bob can be seen all over the world hosting the Emmy Award winning coverage of the Tournament of Roses New Year's Day Parade for Tribune Broadcasting and the Hallmark Channel. His ratings usually are double the other channels combined.

Bob has produced television shows for all four of the major networks and for the syndicated market. Producer credits include: • The Toni Tennille Show • Buddy Hackett's You Bet Your Life • All Star Secrets • The Guinness Game • Infatuation, Motion Picture Producer Credits: • Payback

In 1964, 1965 & 1966 Eubanks produced The Beatles concerts at the Hollywood Bowl and Dodger Stadium. This was the beginning of a 20-year concert promotion career that made him one of the largest concert promoters in America.

Oh and by the way... he's a heck of a cowboy! I guess he really is ONE OF A KIND!
