"The response was tremendous! What an entertaining show. From the beginning, Jason captured the audience's attention with his marvelous piano playing and stories about the songs that made his grandfather famous. He had a great rapport with the audience, and his multimedia approach resulted in one of the most professional and entertaining shows we've had. This was one of the best planned and performed shows I've seen. If you haven't seen it, you should. Would love to have Jason back in Lawrenceburg."

"The buzz is that [Jason and Meagan] were wonderful. . . . While we have given standing ovations, we do not usually do two – one during a performance and then at the end! I had more members ask me, 'Where did you find them?'"

*Jamie P. – Cincinnati, OH
Cincinnati Woman's Club*

"I had seen Jason perform for the first time a few years ago . . . and although I have always enjoyed [his] concerts, somehow this year I was truly touched. I marveled at the extreme talent that was evident in Jason and Meagan. When they sang or played, they appeared to be truly engaged in the song. Their faces lit up, and you knew they were singing from the heart. . . . As I left the concert, people were chatting about what a blessing it had been for them. It was a truly great evening."

Kathy K. – Greeneville, TN

"...Jason had our students, attending the afternoon outreach program, singing along and dancing in the aisles. At the evening concert I heard people humming along as he played some of their favorite songs. And they loved the screen presentation of his childhood memories."

“This very young, extremely charming and awesomely talented man had the entire audience in the palm of his hand, within minutes! . . . He is a delightful keyboard artist, offering a wide variety of music, demonstrating an immediate and long-lasting rapport with every age in our audience. His concert made us laugh and truly brought tears to our eyes, with his joy and tenderness for his art.”

“Jason was back again last night and what a show! He seemed to love what he was doing, has matured even more in his stage presence, and his enjoyment was contagious! What a delightful, talented young man. He did a lot to convince people that our community concerts are well worth supporting and then some. We thought he was wonderful three years ago and he was even better this time. All I heard as we were leaving was how much everyone loved him.”

*Kathy V. – Bremerton, WA
Bremerton Community Concerts*

“Based on his first show in Terrell in 2011 as a Live On Stage touring artist, Jason was voted "Entertainer of the Decade" in 2012 by E! Terrell Entertainment Series subscribers. . . . He is the first ever "three-peat" performer for our community.”

JASON COLEMAN and MEAGAN TAYLOR CONCERT REVIEWS

“Last night I attended one of the best performances I have seen in the past 20 years of concert attendance. Jason Coleman was the consummate performer. His program was so visual and his stage presence charming. I was transported back to the 60’s in grand style . . . I would attend a repeat performance.”

Jo Ann C. – Munster, IN

“He had the crowd loving him from the moment he walked on stage. Lots of humming around me all through the performance; Jason plays the old favorites SO WELL! . . . He was a huge hit – a sweet spirit who lifted our spirits!”

Lois D. – Harlingen, TX

“Last week, my daughter and I saw Jason Coleman perform in Liberal, Kansas. Oh, my, such talent, and he had me oohing and ahing, laughing, crying, reminiscing about the songs and memories I have with his grandfather’s music. What a show, and so well put together . . . It was perfect. In fact, I overheard one gentleman say as we were leaving, ‘That was the best concert I have ever been to.’ My 30-year-old daughter thought it was great, saying that the two-hour show seemed like about 30 minutes.”

Kerry H. – Liberal, KS

“He [is] not only entertaining, but provided such an interesting history of his grandpa, Floyd Cramer . . . What a perfect way for my husband and I to celebrate our 45th wedding anniversary! It was a performance we will not soon forget! It brought back so many memories of those wonderful songs from the 50’s and 60’s – ‘our time!’ . . .

Everyone we talked to was raving about the concert!”

Carolyn M. – Topeka, KS

“My what a talented and personable young man who has been blessed beyond imagination to be able to bring his Grandfather’s talent back to the stage... one could close their eyes and swear they were listening to the Great Floyd Cramer! This is the second time Jason has graced our stage at the Saenger Theater in Biloxi and I pray that it won’t be the last!”
