

Super-tight, ultra-hip, downright electric, four-part harmony!

The Four Freshmen

Shout-outs from those in the know!

Media

"A trunk-full of tried and true melodies, a friendly stage presence and a soaring harmony that was so tight, a sheet of paper couldn't slide between it."

Lebanon Daily News

Peers

"Unisons, harmonies, open voicings, movable inner parts—all so beautiful and so, so modern."

Tim Hauser • founder, Manhattan Transfer

Audiences

"Your show tonight was fantastic! Tight harmonies, subtle orchestration, a great play list of old and new. You exceeded our expectations...and memories."

Paul Gaecke • Sharon L. Morse PAC at The Villages, FL

Your Colleagues

The guys were a pleasure to work with—very conscious and accommodating of our tight schedule. The show was awesome! The audience and staff left raving. They have such beautiful tight harmonies & the instrumentation sets it off perfectly!

Allison Bruen • Sellersville Theater, Sellersville, PA

Photo: Ryan Merrill Photography

Whether performing with a full symphonic orchestra, a big band, or playing self-contained, Tommy Boynton, Jon Gaines, Bob Ferreira, and Stein Malvey have preserved that signature "Four Freshmen sound" and continue to thrill sold-out audiences worldwide today.

While paying tribute to classic Freshmen favorites, they also perform a variety of pop and jazz standards from the Great American Songbook like Moonglow, Day In Day Out, Stompin' at the Savoy, Come Fly With Me, Girl From Ipanema and Route 66. Their vitality and talent add an unforgettable twist of elegance to an already unmistakable sound.

Booking Information:

Alkahest Artists & Attractions, Inc.
888-728-8989
E-mail: info@alkahestartists.net
Website: www.alkahestartists.net

• PAC, corporate, fair/festival, casino, college and private events

• Excellent arts-in-education program

• Family friendly